

School of Healthcare Education & Debate

For health practitioners
25 places for each workshop so first come first served

UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS

Led by top researchers in their field at the School of Healthcare these workshops are a fantastic opportunity to discuss how research conducted in the School could influence your clinical practice.

The workshops cover a diverse range of topics from the use of technology in health care to opportunities for a clinical academic research career. Join us for one or more workshops to strengthen research and practice links. Link for registration below.

29th Jan 1-4pm
Baines Wing Rm 3.20

Dr Alice Keely and Dr Tomasina Stacey
Maternal weight in pregnancy: acknowledging stigma and communicating risk

7th Feb 1-4pm
Worsley Building SR 9.58c

Professor Theo Raynor
Addressing health literacy- how to write well for patients and carers

13th Feb 1-4pm
Worsley Building SR 9.58c

Professor Carl Thompson
Don't be a chimp or a chump: "clinical decisions and judgements 101"

20th Feb 1-4pm
Baines Wing Rm 2.08

Dr Rebecca Randell and Professor Justin Keen
How do I know that a ward is providing safe care? Using technology to monitor from ward to board

21st Feb 1-4pm
Hillary Place SR LG.01

Dr Rebecca Randell and Professor Jon Hindmarsh
Introducing robot-assisted surgery into practice

27th Feb 1-4pm
Worsley Building SR 6.080

Professor Andrea Nelson, Dr Una Adderley and Dr Susanne Coleman, Wound Assessment – what information matters?

28th Feb 1-4pm
Baines Wing Rm 1.13

Professor Veronica Swallow and Dr Linda Milnes
Co-producing, evaluating and implementing information and support interventions for people living with long-term conditions.

5th March 9am -12pm
Baines Wing Rm 3.20

Professor Karen Spilsbury, Professor John Baker and Professor Dave Alldred
Medicines management and administration in care homes: Considerations for the care team.

19th March 1-4pm
Baines Wing Rm 3.20

Professor Anne-Maree Keenan
Opportunities to develop a Clinical academic research career within the NHS

26th March 9am -12pm
Baines Wing Rm 3.20

Dr Helen Smith
Professional Knowledge - Dead and Buried or Alive and Thriving? Addressing the role of curiosity in clinical practice.

To register e-mail
i.sproat@leeds.ac.uk

For more information email
Linda Milnes l.j.milnes@leeds.ac.uk